

Rotary Hears About Academic Achievements

Hope High School students in the Society for Academic Achievement, sponsored by the Hope Rotary Club, were guests at the club's weekly luncheon held last Friday at the Town and Country. The 12 students named to the SAA are: Fred O. Ellis, Bill Etter, Robyn Formby, Peggy Franks, George Garrett, Larry Gwilt, Beth Lawrence, Linda Kay Reese, Cindy Reese, Stan

Reyenga, Molly Tolleson, and Larry Don Wright.

Club President Paul Klipsch welcomed the club members and guests. John Blundell of Texarkana was a visiting Rotarian. Carland Medders was in charge of the program, and he introduced special guests, Mrs. Sam W. Strong, Jr., Mrs. B. C. Hyatt, Mrs. Arthur Strech, and Mrs. Don Johnson, all of the local Friday Music Club.

In recognition of National Music Week, Mrs. Strong, who is President of the Friday Music Club, made a few remarks about the music club and the state music club project, Inspiration Point, located at Eureka Springs. Mrs. Hyatt and Mrs. Strech played the Overture from "Carmen" and the Soldier's Chorus from "Faust" as piano duets.

Mrs. Johnson sang a medley of songs from light operas, accompanied by Mrs. Hyatt. These included "Say It With Music," "Without A Song," "With A Song

3 Hannibal Boys Still Missing

By LOWELL MCKIRGAN
HANNIBAL, Mo. (AP)—All leads, however scant, will be thoroughly checked before the search for three missing Hannibal boys is called off, officials said today.

The search for Billy Hoag, 11, Joey Hoag, 13, and Craig Dowell, 14, entered its fifth day. The boys were believed to be exploring caves when last seen Wednesday.

Some of the numerous volunteers concentrated on the caves which lace the Hannibal hills, while others remained above ground searching the Mississippi River bluffs.

Caves were methodically inspected under the direction of William Karras, 44, of White Post, Va. Karras is president of the Speleological Society of America and has taken part in numerous underground rescue operations.

Karras said Sunday night he was positive the boys were lost underground. But, he said to the father of the Hoag brothers, "If those boys are on the surface we should try to communicate with them. They might be alive and well but afraid to come home."

Later Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hoag issued pleas for the boys to return.

"Joey, Joey, Billy," Mrs. Hoag said as tears streaked her face, "Please come home. You won't be punished. You know we love you. Please come home before I have a heart attack."

Faulty Door Hurts Lunar Photographs

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—It was an open door on America's Lunar Orbiter 4 that exposed camera film to sunlight and ruined several frames, scientists say.

They said Sunday they were having trouble with a thermal door that covers the camera lens on the 600-pound lunar satellite and decided to leave it open to avoid problems.

But it caused more problems, they said, explaining: "It now seems likely that sunlight leaked inside the camera system through the open door and over a long period of time it caused light to strike on some of the film frames."

In My Heart," "The Sound of Music," and "Climb Every Mountain." The program was concluded with everyone joining in singing "You'll Never Walk Alone."

Television and Radio

NEW YORK (AP) — The idea of a special program on top comedians replaying numbers that made them famous was great. Thursday night's NBC "Comedy Hour" would have done well to stick to the premise and the promise.

Somehow quality was sacrificed for quantity and while there was an enormous amount of talent around much of it was wasted.

The brightest moments were those when Bob Newhart was agonizing through his great old bit as the driving instructor with a woman student and Shelley Berman suffering in his telephone monologue with the child who kept hanging up.

Rowan and Martin repeated an amusing sketch — fairly recent material — with Rowan playing Richard Burton in a night club act being heckled by Martin's ringside drunk.

There were other amusing moments, although they had nothing to do with nostalgia, comic or otherwise. Allan Sherman had a funny song about Aunt Minnie and her miniskirt. Dick Shawn did not get to his great old piece about the Civil War soldier but kidded rock 'n' roll singing styles. Carl Reiner with Mel Brooks as the 2,000-year-old man have never repeated material in all their years together but they are always funny.

A formidable trio of comedians — Edie Adams, Nanette Fabray and Kaye Ballard — were completely wasted in a coy singing number. Phyllis Diller is more amusing in her soap commercials than when dropping household hints Thursday night.

It was a very uneven hour made more ragged by the frequency with which commercials for the sponsor's assorted products were dropped in. They were awkwardly placed and annoyingly interruptive.

NBC and CBS will provide satellite coverage Saturday, starting at 6 a.m. EDT, of Pope Paul's pilgrimage to Fatima. NBC will wrap up the story with a half-hour special Saturday night, 8-8:30.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Is it art — or a massive put-on? That's what visitors to the Los Angeles County Museum of Art are wondering as they attend the new exhibit, "American Sculpture of the 60s." It is an exhibition that invites superlatives: biggest, noisiest, funniest, farthest-out.

It is certainly big. The sculpture occupies two large floors of the special-exhibit building and spills out into the plaza and all over. There are huge pieces outdoors — building blocks for giants, jungle gyms, stainless steel forms that look like airplane parts.

So attractive is the sculpture to children that guards with bullhorns are posted outdoors. "Do not stand on the sculpture!" announced a guard to a couple of boys who started to climb a giant cube unaware that it was art. I heard the guard sigh, "It's like a carnival."

The exhibit eschews the funeral hush that surrounds most art galleries. There are sculptures that rattle, growl, tinkle or play like calliope.

Noisiest of the lot is "Flip and Two Twisters" by Len Lye. In a shadow box the size of a small room are suspended three long, narrow sheets of stainless steel. One hangs U-shaped from the ceiling, and the two ends are rotated to create continuous sound. The other two strips dangle free and are rotated furiously.

When the rotation stops, the metal produced a thunderous crash that sends small children scurrying to their parents.

"American sculpture of the 60s" is indeed fun-filled. There is one of Marisol's wooden-box creations of human forms.

"Mixed Media," Lucas Samaras has contributed "Corridor," which consists of a glass passageway — walls, floors and ceiling — through which patrons pass in stockinged feet.

The far-out qualities of the exhibit can be seen in every corner. Tony Berlant's "The Marriage of New York and Athens" looks like an immense erector-set construction, with skyscrapers emerging from a Grecian temple. Peter Agostini contributed "Brutal Queen," a great, twisted mass in white plaster.

"It looks like whipped cream," commented a 6-year-old critic.

This column is for young people, their problems and pleasures, their troubles and fun. As with the rest of Helen Help Us, it welcomes laughs but won't dodge a serious question with a brush off.

Send your teenage questions to YOUTH ASKED FOR IT, care of Helen Help Us! This newspaper.

ARE BABYSITTERS OVERPAID?
Dear Helen: Our baby sitter announced her prices have jumped to 75 cents an hour, $1.00 after midnight, and 25 cents extra per hour for each kid over her limit of three to a job. She said the sitters have organized. If they don't get what they ask, they'll go on strike.

Ye Gods! Teens striking for higher pay yet? So now its six flat-ones or more every time I take out my wife in the manner you columnists keep harping is necessary to keep her happy.

This added to $20 or $30 for dinner-and, means we eat plenty light at home in between. It's true, the after-dinner mint you need these days is located at Denver!

Now I'm not for slave labor, but I think 50 cents an hour is enough for a sitter, when you figure it's all gravy after 9 p.m. and the kids are in bed, or should be. Well maybe not gravy, but whatever is loose in the refrigerator. What do others think?—SHARIN' OF THE GREEN AGAINST MY WILL.

Dear SOTGAMW: I think $3.00 for a steak dinner is enough, too, but my opinion isn't shared by many restaurateurs these days. Actually sitters-fee have only doubled in the last 30 years, whereas wages and the cost of living have more than tripled.

Don't blame the kids for wanting their fair share of inflation. . . . But your wife might get together with a neighbor and trade "sitting time"—or organize a mothers club which can arrange a baby sitters exchange.—H.

Dear Helen: I have a wife that is a real woman in every way, but she doesn't know it and won't believe it. She is scared silly thinking I'll fall for some of these chicks that come along.

I'm 53, she's 46. We've been married two years. We were both married before, but this is REAL. She dreams at night I eloped with a girl half my age, and wakes up to worry me about it. I never returned a come-on by any woman since my marriage but I must admit things happen to me.

The other day I was at the coin laundry, reading and waiting. A little doll from the beauty parlor next door supposedly tripped over my feet and fell in to my lap. She said, "Pardon me", but somehow she managed to pat my cheek and pinch my arm. There staring with those big, blue, say eyes was my wife.

A few weeks ago we were at church, mind you. A pretty lady came up and said, "Sir, your tie isn't straight," so she straightened it and kissed me on the cheek. Again, those big, blue, sad eyes . . .

Helen, why me?—L.M.

Dear L: . . . Because you appreciate women and they sense it, that's why. Gals beam in on men like you, and there's nothing you can do about it except let 'em know you aren't THAT friendly.—H

P.S. I might have answered you with a quip had I not received a letter from your wife in the same mail. She says:

Dear Helen: I saw my husband's letter, so I thought I'd write one also. He is the best thing that ever happened to me and it seems too good to be true that I have a kind, generous, very handsome and young-looking husband (after many marital troubles in my earlier life). He's filled with love to give me and is completely true, but I'm jealous. How could he have chosen me when he seems to be what all women want — without even trying? — L.M.'S WIFE

Dear Wife: He chose you because you're a "real woman," and you'd better believe it before your jealousy drives him to a lesser one. When others make a play — smile, sympathize and APPRECIATE him! — H.

BURMA REPORT
LONDON (AP) — Fears that missionary work in Burma would collapse because of recent government actions there are "completely unfounded," says Canon David Paton, an Anglican missionary leader.

Although the Burmese government a year ago ordered all foreign missionaries who had come there since 1948 to get out, Canon Paton said the nationalization of the churches there had brought them new life rather than decline.

Tips From Baby

A 13-year-old member of the New York City Ballet Company depends to some extent upon make-up to convey the mood of the role she is dancing. Because the heavy make-up is hard on young skin, she concentrates on thorough cleansing. First she removes the make-up with baby oil, then she washes her face to discourage blemishes. She follows the cool rinsing with baby lotion. One more tip from baby for comfort — she dusts powder in her ballet slippers.

Cream Has Dual Purpose
Removing stubborn mascara, eye liner and shadow can be painful and irritating to the delicate skin around the eyes and lids. An easy way to remove eye make-up without rubbing is with a rinse-off cold cream and water. The cold cream also lubricates and softens the skin while it works, and leaves a light emollient film on the face.

Always cook a hash mixture in a heavy skillet over low heat — and allow plenty of time — if you want to produce skillet-browned hash.

New Orleans Open Is Won by Knudson

By BEN THOMAS
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW ORLEANS (AP)—George Knudson, like Frank Beard, will always have fond memories of the 15th hole at Lakewood County Club.

Knudson, an ex-caddy from Canada, used a shot "I didn't know I had in my bag" Sunday at 15 and went on to capture the $20,000 first-prize money in the $100,000 Greater New Orleans Open Golf Tourney.

He beat Jack Nicklaus by a shot, keeping the Ohio strong-boy from his first official victory on the PGA national tour this year and whetting Nicklaus' appetite for this week's Colonial National Invitational in Fort Worth, Tex.

Nicklaus made no excuses, save for a wry comment about landing in a bunker "where it looked like about 30 people had been walking in it."

"Well, on to next week," he said as he picked up his $12,000 check for second place.

Knudson, 29, was the only player in this year's tourney to get a birdie on the 53-yard par 5 hole. Beard, who finished third this year, won the tourney last year with an eagle on the same hole.

Nicklaus hit what "I thought was a good put" from three feet on the same hole for a birdie, "but it hit the bottom of the hole and came out."

Nicklaus and Knudson began the final round over the windswept course, with its 7,020-yards playing short because of sun-baked fairways, tied for the lead. Beard was two shots back.

Knudson wound up with a 70, two under par, for a 72-hole score of 277. Nicklaus' final round was 70. So was Beard's.

Bob Charles, Billy Casper, Tommy Bolt, Cardiner Dickinson and South African rookie Coble LeGrange all deadlocked for fourth earning $3,820 each.

Casper and LeGrange had closing round 67s.

Casper won the All America Gold Cup and the $5,000 cash for first that goes with it. The award goes to the golfer with the lowest combined scores for this tourney, the Masters, PGA and UOpen.

State College to NABA Tourney

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — State College of Arkansas defeated Southern State twice in a row here Saturday and earned the right to compete in the NABA baseball tournament at San Angelo, Tex., next week.

State College will represent District 17 of the NABA. The Bears whipped the Muleriders 11-2 in the first game and 7-2 in the second.

State College and Ouachita Baptist University tied for the round-robin championship of the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference. Both were eliminated from the AIC tournament, which Southern State won.

State College beat Ouachita in a playoff game to get a crack at Southern State.

Basketball Star, Sister Die in Crash

MADISONVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Dwight Smith, 21, Western Kentucky University basketball star, and his sister, Sheryl Kay Smith, 18, were killed Sunday afternoon when their car hit rain-slicked roads near here and plunged into a water-filled ditch.

Smith's brother Greg, another key player on the Western team, was injured, treated in a hospital, and released.

Hopkins County Deputy Coroner Harold Bandy said the car submerged in water, and speculated that both may have drowned before they could escape.

The three were returning to Western Kentucky University after a Mothers Day visit to their Princeton, Ky., home. The two brothers were guests of honor at a banquet Saturday night sponsored by a Methodist church.

Smith was a senior, had been drafted by both the American and National Basketball associations, and was to have graduated this year.

The two made up one of Kentucky's best known brother combinations in college basketball.

They were top players on the Western team which won the Ohio Valley Conference title and went to the NCAA tournament the last two years.

Smith ranked ninth among all-time scoring leaders at Western time scoring leaders at Western and seventh among three-year players.

In three varsity season at Western, Smith averaged 14.6 points and 10.9 rebounds.

Mantle's 500th Wins for Yanks

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer
Mickey Mantle, whose 10-day ordeal has ended with a loud crash, is breathing easy again. Eddie Stanky, whose 10-game joyride goes on without a wallop, is holding his breath.

"I'm glad it's over... it's a relief," Mantle said Sunday after blasting the 500th home run of his illustrious major league career to lift the New York Yankees past the Baltimore Orioles 6-5.

"I have never seen a club go this far on pitching alone," Manager Stanky said after his light-hitting Chicago White Sox ran their winning string to 10 games and swept into the American League lead with 4-2 and 3-1 victories over the California Angels.

Mantle, who hit his 499th homer on May 3 at Minnesota, struggled through seven homerless games before unleashing No. 500 against Stu Miller in the seventh inning Sunday and becoming the sixth player in history to reach the half-century mark.

"It's like winning the last game of a World Series," said the 17-year New York veteran, whose drive into the right field seats at Yankee Stadium admitted him to the exclusive circle that also includes Babe Ruth, Willie Mays, Jimmy Foxx, Ted Williams and Mel Ott.

Reminded by newsmen that the next milestone is Ott's career mark of 511 homers, Mantle shook his head. "511?" he snorted. "You mean you guys are going to start that now?"

"My next goal is 11," Stanky was saying in Chicago after Gary Peters completed the White Sox' sweep by tossing the eighth one-hitter in the majors this spring.

The double victory, coupled with Boston's 8-5, 13-9 doubleheader sweep over Detroit, sent the White Sox into first place — 1½ games ahead of the Tigers.

Elsewhere in the American League, Kansas City topped Minnesota 4-2 and Cleveland edged Washington 2-1 in a rain-curtailed five-inning game.

Cincinnati took a National League doubleheader from Philadelphia 2-1 and 1-0, San Francisco swept Houston 11-6 and 4-3, Pittsburgh trimmed Atlanta 5-2, the New York Mets ambushed St. Louis 3-1 and Los Angeles split a twin bill with the Chicago Cubs, winning 2-1 in 10 innings before bowing 6-3 in 11.

Mantle's homer gave New York a 6-4 lead after Joe Pepitone's two-run pinch-hit blast in the sixth wiped out a 4-3 deficit.

The Orioles closed the gap in the eighth when Mantle, still dazed by the roaring ovation given him by 18,872 Stadium fans, dropped a throw at first base and then fired wildly past the plate, enabling Frank Robinson to score.

"I was in a fog," he said. "It sure would have been pretty tough to hit the homer, then make an error that lost the game."

Peters stymied the Angels after yielding a second-inning homer by ex-teammate Bill Skowron. It was the left-hander's fourth straight victory after an opening loss.

Tommy John and reliever Bob Locker combined for a five-hitter in the first game and Ken Berry's third hit — a two-run single in the seventh — gave the White Sox their winning margin.

The Chicago pitching staff has given up only 13 runs during the 10-game streak.

"There have been times when the pitchers carry you for four or five games," Stanky said. "But then the team will come up with some hitting to keep the streak alive. It's been all pitching for us."

Rico Petrocelli, who drove in five runs, and Carl Yastrzemski each rapped two homers in leading the Red Sox to their sweep over Detroit.

The two clubs set an American League record of 28 extra base hits in the doubleheader, with Boston accounting for 16. Willie Horton hit two homers in the nightcap for Detroit, which had won seven in a row.

Kansas City struck for four runs in the first inning — two on Mike Herschberger's double — and took their third straight from the Twins behind the strong pitching of Chuck Dobson and Jack Aker.

Cleveland's Sonny Siebert pitched a two-hitter, setting the Senators down in order until the fifth, when Frank Howard homered and Dick Nen beat out an infield single. Joe Azcue homered for the Indians, who swept the three-game set.

Marble is regaining importance as a basic building stone.

Gary Nolan Gives Reds Double Win

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer
Life gets easier all the time for young Gary Nolan, who was battling high school hitters in Oroville, Calif., a year ago.

Now, all he has to worry about are Willie Mays, Roberto Clemente and the rest of the National League.

"I was hit harder in high school than I have been so far this year," grinned Nolan after his five-hitter had blanked Philadelphia 1-0 and given Cincinnati a sweep of Sunday's doubleheader.

The Reds won the opener 2-1 on Vada Pinson's eighth-inning homer and the four-hit pitching of Jim Maloney and Ted Abernathy.

Nolan is the precocious 18-year-old right-hander who came to the Cincinnati camp as a non-roster player and won a regular job. He is 3-1 with a 2.12 earned run average and the poise of a man twice his age.

"I don't get nervous because when I came to the Reds I felt I could pitch big league ball," Nolan said.

"I love what I've seen of him," said Dave Bristol, the Reds' manager. "No kicking, no tugging, no pulling. He just goes to work and puts the ball over with something on it."

Nolan had plenty on it against the Phillies. He struck out eight and now has fanned 48 in 46 2-3 innings. The shutout was his first in organized ball.

The youngster's confidence may come from the fact that he was the Reds' first choice in the free agent draft last June. A $65,000 bonus never hurt anybody's confidence.

Nolan was 7-3 with 163 strikeouts in 104 innings at Sioux Falls of the Northern League after signing last year. He was still on the Sioux Falls roster this spring but not for long.

In other National League games Sunday, San Francisco swept a doubleheader from Houston 11-6 and 4-3, Chicago split with Los Angeles, losing 2-1 in 10 innings before winning 6-3 in 11, New York dropped St. Louis 3-1, and Pittsburgh whipped Atlanta 5-2.

In the American League, Mickey Mantle's 500th career homer helped New York to a 6-5 victory over Baltimore. Chicago swept two from California, 4-2 and 3-1. Kansas City topped Minnesota 4-2. Cleveland edged Washington 2-1 in a five inning game and Boston swept a doubleheader from Detroit 8-5 and 13-9.

Consecutive first inning doubles by Pete Rose and Tony Perez gave Nolan the only run he needed against the Phillies in the second game.

Maloney worked into the ninth of the opener but had to leave when his right shoulder became sore. Abernathy got the last two outs.

The Giants unloaded 16 hits in the first game against the Astros with Jim Hart driving in four runs, three of them on a homer. Hart, Tito Fuentes and Norm Siebern had three hits apiece in the attack.

Olite Brown's two-out, two-run homer in the ninth inning gave the Giants the second game. Houston rookie Don Wilson was leading 3-0 on a two-hitter in the eighth inning before San Francisco knocked him out with a two-run rally. Then Brown's first pitch shot off Claude Raymond won it in the ninth.

Willie Davis delivered a run-scoring single with two out in the 10th inning of the opener, lifting the Dodgers past the Cubs. Don Drysdale, 2-3, who drove in the first Los Angeles run with an eighth-inning single, was the winner.

Army-bound Ken Holtzman copped his fourth straight in the second game and ignited the three-run rally that won it in the 11th with a single. Ron Rairly cracked a two-run homer for the Dodgers.

The Mets ended Bob Gibson's nine-game winning streak against them as Jack Fisher beat the Cardinals.

Match Race Set Up for Buckpasser

By ORLO ROBERTSON

NEW YORK (AP) — A race at one mile between Buckpasser, holder of the world record, and Dr. Fager, fastest 3-year-old horse ever to travel the distance in New York, was a possibility today.

The chance of such a meeting became likely when Johnny Nerud, trainer of Dr. Fager, announced the flashy colt from W.L. McKnight's Tartan Stable would not be a starter in next Saturday's $150,000-added Preakness at Pimlico. Nerud said he was the Jersey Derby or the Metropolitan Handicap for his star's next race.

Both the Jersey Derby and Metropolitan are $100,000-added events with the former a 1½-mile stake exclusively for 3-year-olds and the latter a one-mile event open to all ages. The Jersey Derby will be raced at Garden State Park and the Metropolitan at Aqueduct, both on Memorial Day, May 30.

Much depends on the weights assigned by Tommy Trotter, Aqueduct handicapper, May 25. "My horse gets 14 pounds by scale," said Nerud as he enthused over Dr. Fager's six-length victory over previously unbeaten Tumliga in last Saturday's $58,300 Withers at Aqueduct. It was his second victory in as many starts this year and his sixth in seven career outings.

In winning the Withers, Dr. Braulio Baeza in the saddle, Dr. Fager ripped off the one mile in 1:33 4-5, only one-fifth of a second off the track record held by several older horses. Buckpasser, 1966 Horse of the Year and winner of $1,237,174 with a string of 14 straight victories, hung up the world standard of 1:35 4-5 last year at Arlington Park.

Buckpasser's last race was Dec. 31 at Santa Anita. A quarter-crack, which also kept him out of such rich 3-year-old races in 1966 as the Kentucky Derby, Preakness and Belmont Stakes, placed him on the sidelines again. But he has been working sensationally. His latest time trial was a sizzling 57 4-5 seconds for five-eighths of a mile last Saturday with six furlongs in 1:10 4-5 eased up.

In addition to Dr. Fager, Tumiga of the Withers field will by-pass the Preakness with the latter slated to make his next start in the Jersey Derby.

But Hall to Reason, who finished third, will leave Tuesday for Pimlico with Walter Blum slated to ride him Saturday.

District 7 Baseball Tourney Here

District No. 7 Baseball Tournament starts tonight at 7:30 p.m. at Legion Field in Hope Fair Park with Hope versus Murfreesboro. Batting practice for Hope will be from 6:00 to 6:30 and visitors from 6:30 to 7: p.m. Infield practice will follow for both teams and manager's conference at 7:25.

Other teams entered are: Blevins, Prescott and Bradley. Tuesday night, Blevins and Bradley will play at 7:30.

This will be a single elimination tournament and the length of game will be regulation 9 innings. Home team will be decided by flip of the coin and there will be a winner's trophy.

Wednesday night at 7:30, Prescott will play the winner of the Hope-Murfreesboro game. Batting practice will start at 6:00 p.m. each night. A concession stand will be open during each game.

163 Mark Set in the 500 Qualifier

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) —

On any other day Wally Dallenbach might have been an auto racing sensation.

It was last Saturday, the opening day of qualifications for the Memorial Day 500-mile race, and a crowd upwards of 200,000 was waiting and watching for speeds by such drivers as Mario Andretti, Parnelli Jones, Jimmy Clark — big names in the sport.

So when Dallenbach became the day's third qualifier at a speed of 163.540 miles per hour, the fastest officially for any green, but Dowell made his 20-foot eagle putt and Cobb lost the hole with a birdie.

Dowell sank a downhill putt on the seventh hole for a birdie two. Both players birdied the eighth, but Dowell parred the ninth hole to go four up.

Twenty-six major international motor racing routes will span Europe from London to Istanbul and from Gibraltar to Helsinki, hopefully by 1970.

But the four-lap, 10-mile stint in his turbocharged Offenhauser earned him the outside spot in the fifth row for the May 30 event, and when he had finished he went to the garage area and telephoned his wife in East Brunswick, N.J.

THE WELL CHILD®
Two Lines of Treatment Of Bladder Infections
By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

A mother writes that her daughter, 6, has had a bladder infection since she was 2. In spite of sulfa drugs her urine still shows a few pus cells. She appears to be healthy in other respects. I would venture to say that this child has a chronic low-grade kidney infection rather than an infection limited to the bladder. All chronic conditions are hard to clear up but there are two lines of treatment of infections of the urinary tract that are usually successful. When sulfa drugs fail, a study should be made to identify the causative germ and to test its susceptibility to chloramphenicol or other antibiotics. If treatment with antibiotics doesn't work there is still the old standby - alternately acidifying the urine with mandelic acid and alkalizing it with bicarbonate of soda.

Q-My son, 3, gets frequent attacks of tracheobronchitis. Will he ever outgrow this? Is there any way to prevent these attacks?
A-A thorough study should be made to see whether your son has a chronic infection in his sinuses, tonsils, adenoids or lungs, and whether he has any allergies, as these may bring on recurrent attacks of bronchitis. He is not likely to outgrow the attacks but removal of the cause should reduce their frequency.

Q-Our 7-month-old grandson has asthma. Is it usual for so young a child to have this disease? The doctor advises keeping him in dust-free rooms when he is indoors. Can he outgrow this disease?
A-Asthma and other allergic disease may become manifest in infants who are only 5 or 6 months old. Usually, in such cases, the cause is relatively easy to find. You did not say whether the restrictions on dust were made as a matter of general principle or as a result of careful studies to find the exact cause of the asthma. Discovering and removing the cause is always the first line of treatment. Although it may be possible to outgrow some allergic disease, I would not count on it.

Q-If a child develops an umbilical hernia shortly after birth, would this cause excessive belching, crying or vomiting?
A-The only trouble that may result when an umbilical hernia is very large is strangulation of the intestines. This would be a surgical emergency. The usual umbilical hernia causes no symptoms and usually disappears without treatment by the time the child is two years old.

PLAY ABOUT GANDHI
NEW YORK (AP) - A drama about the career of India's famous leader Mahatma Gandhi is to be produced and directed on Broadway next season by Otto Preminger.

If the play remains in its present form an intermission for dinner may be needed. Mrs. Gurney Campbell, the author, said the study divides into two main sections, each longer than a conventional drama.

STATES WANT MORE FROM TAX TAKE
CHICAGO (AP) - After half a century of contributing to the federal income tax coffers, the individual states are clamoring for a share of the money.

More than 30 states have discussed legislation seeking to get Congress to return to the states a share of the monies collected in personal and business income tax.

Ten states have enacted resolutions urging the federal body to consider the plea. The resolutions are varied and nonspecific.

But even if three-fourths of the state legislatures passed such resolutions, they would not be binding on Congress. If this were a proposed constitutional amendment, Congress would be obliged to call a constitutional convention if 34 states requested such a call. Then, if the convention agreed on an amendment, 34 states would have to ratify it. This device never has been used.

The idea of states sharing in income tax receipts was first deemed feasible by economist Walter W. Heller, a presidential adviser during the Kennedy administration.

The recent financial plight of many states aroused new interest in the concept.

Many states led by pro-Johnson legislators are in favor of the plan, but oppose it presently as a drain on the administration's pipeline of dollars to Vietnam.

The state resolutions call for rebates of 5 to 10 percent. Gov. Raymond P. Shafer of Pennsylvania, a Republican, is spearheading a drive to call a constitutional convention. Shafer advances no specific method for the federal-state tax sharing system but would leave that to the amending convention.

The Pennsylvania House passed the governor's plan with unanimous GOP support, and near total opposition from Democrats who contend the state should levy taxes if it needs more revenue.

The constitutional convention formula was rejected by the Georgia Senate after the House approved the plan and called for a 5 percent rebate. The Senate feared that an empowered convention could expand its scope to rewriting the entire Constitution.

U. of A. Gets 4 Swimmers, All-America

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Four more swimmers, including an All-American from Littleton, Colo., have signed letters of intent to attend the University of Arkansas.
 Arkansas Swimming Coach Melvin Patterson made the announcement Saturday. Patterson has now signed six swimmers.
 Al Butcher of Littleton is currently ranked first in the country in the 100-yard and 200-yard butterfly. The other three signees are Mike Barden from Little Rock Hall, (state record-holder in the free-style) Tom Roberts from Hall, record-holder in the backstroke, and diver Tom Jones of Olive Branch, Miss.
 Sam Boulmetis won four straight Quaker City Handicaps at Garden State Park racetrack in Cherry Hill, N.J. between 1961 and 1964.

Travelers in 5th Straight Win, 7 to 4

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — The Arkansas Travelers won their fifth consecutive Texas League baseball game here Sunday, defeating El Paso's Sun Kings 7-4.
 The Travelers battered El Paso's Wally Wolf in the first inning, scoring four of their runs before a batter was retired.
 El Paso later shelled starter Joe DiFabio with a four-run rally in the fifth inning, but reliever Jerry Robertson doused the fire and picked up his third victory without a loss.
 Biff Bracy topped off Arkansas' big first inning with a three-run homer that sent Wolf to the showers with his second loss.
 Arkansas padded its margin with a solo homer by Tommy Smith in the third inning and picked up single runs in the fourth and ninth frame.
 The Travelers collected 10 hits off five El Paso pitchers, with Billy Wolf accounting for three, including a pair of doubles.
 El Paso managed four hits against DiFabio.
 In other Texas League action, Austin pounded out an 8-3 victory in a game rained out after six innings, and Albuquerque defeated cellar-dweller Dallas-Fort Worth 7-6 in a 12-inning affair.
 El Paso now trails league-leading Amarillo by three games, while Arkansas is four games out. Albuquerque, Austin and Dallas-Fort Worth bring up the rear.

what was happening," Silvia said.
 "But I did see one cop go down. The mob wouldn't let them make that first arrest."
 John Ashley, of San Francisco, was cut severely on the head while trying to prevent theft of his wife's purse.
 Another bystander, Inez Teblino, of Santa Rosa, got caught in a mob and suffered fractured ribs.
 Two policemen, Francis Fahney, 43, and Harold Hamilton, 28, were cut and a third, Dennis Baker, 28, had a hand injury. All three were taken to a hospital.
 A concessionaire who witnessed the beach outbreak said, "It was no racial thing at first" but before it was over "some older Negroes came up and began telling some white bystanders, 'You are going to get it.'"
 Later in the predominantly Negro district at Fillmore and McAllister, where persons dispersed from the beach area gathered, police said, "Some of those bottles being thrown contain gasoline." Nobody was hit.
 Police moved 20 abreast into the milling mobs at the height of the rioting.

decision to a courtroom packed with tourists and newly admitted attorneys.
 "Neither the Bill of Rights nor the U.S. Constitution is for adults only," he declared dramatically from the bench.
 Fortas' majority opinion, a little more than 55 pages long, traced juvenile court history and the largely informal procedures followed by juvenile court judges in dealing with youngsters accused of crimes.
 He noted that the informality stems from the concept that the state was considered as a sort of substitute parent, with the judge careful to protect the child from the strict procedures followed when adults are charged with crime.
 Although "the highest motives and most enlightened impulses led to a peculiar system for juveniles," Fortas said, "juvenile court history has again demonstrated that unbridled discretion, however benevolently motivated, is frequently a poor substitute for principle and procedure."
 Fortas cited a report by President Johnson's commission on crime in the District of Columbia to show that the informal juvenile court procedure does not effectively reduce juvenile crime or rehabilitate offenders.
 Besides this pragmatic argument, the majority, speaking through Fortas, stressed the constitutional rights of all Americans, juveniles or adults, and said: "Under our Constitution the condition of being a boy does not justify a kangaroo court."
 In his dissenting opinion, Stewart said the decision imposes upon thousands of juvenile courts throughout the nation restrictions that the Constitution made applicable to criminal trials and added:
 "I believe the court's decision is wholly unsound as a matter of constitutional law, and sadly unwise as a matter of judicial policy."
 He said that during the past 70 years "many dedicated men and women have devoted their professional lives to the enlightened task of bringing us out of the dark world of Charles Dickens in meeting our responsibilities to the child in our society."

State Lashed by Rain, Hail, Wind, Sunday

Tornadoes threatened the entire state Sunday as Arkansas was pounded by rain, hail and high winds that swept in on the heels of a passing cold front.
 Tornadoes were reported southwest of Rison, southeast of Gould, on the Arkansas River north of Gould and at Holly Grove, 60 miles southeast of Little Rock.
 There were power failures at Dumas and Gould, but no real property damage was reported.
 Tornado watches issued by the U.S. Weather Bureau at Little Rock ended at 1:30 p.m. for northern and west central Arkansas, and about 9 p.m. for southwest, central and eastern Arkansas.
 Heavy rains drenched the

Hong Kong 'King' Is Dead at 75

LONDON (AP) — Sir Arthur Morse, once known as the uncrowned king of Hong Kong, died at his London home Saturday. He was 75.
 Morse, a native of Ireland, joined the Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank as a young man and became its chairman and chief manager. He played a leading part in the rehabilitation of the colony after the Japanese occupation.
 He was knighted in 1949. Four years later, when he retired from the bank, his staff pulled him and Lady Morse through the streets of Hong Kong in a car.

area around Pocahtontas and Corning, and flash floods were reported on the Black, Cache and Spring rivers.

The Weather Bureau said a total of 10 inches of rain fell on the area Saturday and Sunday, swelling the Black River to a 22-foot crest that was five feet above flood stage.
 The black was expected to crest at 25 feet at Black Rock, some 11 feet above flood stage.
 The Weather Bureau said residents of Clay, Greene, Randolph and Lawrence counties should take all possible precautions against high water through today.

Heavy rain, hail and winds of 50 miles per hour raked Prescott and Camden, and hail and high winds also were reported at Texarkana and Star City.

The storm at Texarkana leveled a 60-foot-long metal shed at one farm, and blew ten cows and a bull over a fence at another farm.

M. A. Fields, who lives about six miles southeast of Texarkana, said he was standing in the yard with his wife and two-year-old daughter when the storm struck "without any warning at all."

As he headed for his house, he "looked around and saw the cows going over the fence."

"The wind just kind of flipped them over that new fence," he said.

Some of the cows, he said, weighed up to 1,000 pounds.

Fields said most of the staples were ripped out of his six-strand barbed wire fence as the cows went over, but that he didn't believe the animals were injured.

"They got up and ran off as fast as they could go," he said.

There also were unconfirmed reports that the wind uprooted trees and demolished a number of outbuildings in the same area.

that a lot can happen in a year.
 "Most people think Fulbright's strength will depend on what happens in Vietnam," said Faubus in an interview.
 But, he added, "I think he's in greater difficulty than he's ever been before."
 "He'd be defeated today because the majority of people in Arkansas don't support his position on Vietnam," said McMath, a ruggedly handsome lawyer and Marine Reserve major general who has spoken often on Vietnam since making a September trip to the war zone. McMath denies publicly he is considering taking on Fulbright but it is an open secret in political circles that he is.

Some prominent Arkansas businessmen who have helped to bankroll the party as well as support Fulbright and Faubus, tend to discount reports Fulbright is in trouble.

But some of them acknowledge privately that if Faubus does challenge Fulbright—and they would prefer that he take on Republican Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller—Fulbright will be in the political light of his life. Fulbright has not announced whether he will run again.

When rumors began reaching Fulbright that his Vietnam dissent was rubbing voters the wrong way, he sought to run the reports down, a source said. He concluded some had been planted by those "who want to shut him up on Vietnam," the source added.

One Little Rock observer said there had been "curbstone speculation that LBJ Democrats might be stirring up some opposition to Fulbright" because of the senator's attacks on Johnson's Vietnam policy.

However, those in the Fulbright camp as well as others attuned to political high frequency say there is no evidence of this.

Some Fulbright friends reportedly are concerned enough to have urged him to be more active politically in Arkansas — to make more public appearances, to hire a pollster, to open an office in Little Rock.

Fire in Tree House Kills 2 Boys

LENOIR, N.C. (AP) — Two Lenoir youngsters have died after a fire in a tree house, and a third was burned critically.

Firemen said the boys had apparently built a fire in a bucket in the tree house Saturday night, and then fell asleep. They fell 20 feet to the ground as the house went up in flames.

Roy Ingram, 13, was dead at the scene. Alan Darrel Guy, 12, was rushed to a hospital, where he died several hours later. Gary Groes, 13, was hospitalized in critical condition.

Arkansans in Money at N.G.

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Two Arkansas golfers finished in the money in the Greater New Orleans Open Golf Tournament here Sunday.

R. H. Sikes of Springdale collected $2,200 for his four-round total of 282, and Miller Barber earned $817 with his 287.

OVER 30,000 NIGHTWATCHERS

This month we've passed the 30,000 mark in Nightwatchers installed in our territory — and that's a lot of dawn-to-dusk protection for our customers!
 You've seen Nightwatchers everywhere — on farms, in schoolyards, at commercial locations that need protective lighting. You've seen them at homes, at nighttime play areas, around motels and even as street lighting in small communities.
 Their tremendous popularity is due to two things: Nightwatcher service is really economical — as little as $2.50 per month — and the flood of light it gives is the cheapest protection against nighttime accidents and prowlers.

One thing you may not know is that AP&L handles all installation and up-keep, including relamping when necessary. There's no maintenance on your part whatsoever.
 Nightwatchers are available in five intensities: 100 watt mercury vapor at $2.50 — 175 watt mercury vapor (or 300 watt incandescent) at $3.00 — 250 watt mercury vapor at $3.50 — 400 watt mercury vapor at $4.35. These monthly prices are for installation on existing facilities, using existing circuits, and are billed on your regular electric service bill.
 Maybe there's a place around your home or business where a Nightwatcher is needed. A call to AP&L will get it.

A Friend At Court

When a higher court tells a lower court that it is wrong, that's not news. But when a lower court tells a higher court that it is wrong, that is news.

A number of judges in the lower echelons of the federal court system are concerned over Supreme Court decisions weakening law enforcement and aiding criminals. No less a jurist than Judge J. E. Lumbard of New York, chief judge of the Second Circuit Court of Appeals, has gone before Congress to testify in favor of bills restoring some sanity to the criminal law.

Speaking in favor of a bill to legalize electronic eavesdropping in certain criminal cases, Judge Lumbard said it is of "utmost importance" for Congress to "strengthen by all possible means the powers of law enforcement agencies to get evidence. In the present crisis, means which may have seemed questionable a few years ago, now are reasonable and necessary. To a great majority of Americans, it is unthinkable that law enforcement should remain as impotent as it is today." We concur. — Columbia (S. C.) State

A News Story

That model of what constitutes a news story finally occurred the other day and was duly reported in The News "People" column: A man bit a dog.

According to legendary standards of journalism it is not news when a dog bites a man, though admittedly it may be of interest to the man involved. However, the more unusual action of a man who bites a dog is considered to be a matter the public wants to hear about. The 1967 news story illustrates rather well how much more complicated life is now than it was in earlier days of reporting. In the latest incident, it seems somehow fitting that the dog-biter was a student psychologist.

It is no longer enough to report that the man bit the dog, it is necessary to interpret, explain and try to determine what the event means in the infinite scheme of things. The psychologist naturally had a good psychological reason for making news. He was quoted by reporters as explaining that he bit the dog "as an act of discipline because I was mad."

But we doubt if the interpreters and analysts will let it go at that, since the incident lends itself to endless speculation whether it was intended as an obscure symbolic protest against the Great Society. It was a Beagle the man bit, and he bit it on the ear. — Dallas (Tex.) Morning News.

Pleasing Everyone

The trouble about Big Government is that it can't help some people without hurting others, though every politician who runs for office likes to pretend that it can.

It can't carry out big social programs or finance little wars without raising taxes. I can't resort to deficit spending without producing inflation and raising prices. It can't enact wage and price controls without crippling business and putting an unfair burden on wage-earners.

There is an old saying that if you try to please anyone, the best thing for any government to do is to try to conduct its affairs in an efficient, economical, responsible manner, the way an ordinary business if run. Then it will please more people than trying to run it any other way. — Orlando (Fla.) Sentinel

Stunt Man Dies

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — Funeral services are pending for Frank McGrath, a Hollywood stunt man turned actor, who was last seen as the cock on the "Wagon Train" television series.

One Injured In Car Wreck Here

City police reported one accident over the weekend. At 7:45 p.m., Sunday night a car driven by Donald Ray Cornelius, 17, went out of control on South Main street in Hope and slid into a tree. A passenger in the car, JoAnn Chormley of Emmet R. 1, age 16, had both feet injured and was taken to a local hospital. No charges were filed. City officers Brown and Rowe investigated.

Youth Riot Broken Up at 'Frisco

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A beach riot by 1,000 youths, sparked when police tried to break up a fight, injured three officers and two bystanders Sunday.

Before it was over, windows were smashed, resort booths robbed and some bottles were tossed at police.

Two youths were arrested on suspicion of looting and 12 others on charges of inciting a riot, battery and resisting arrest.

One hundred police, armed with shotguns, nightsticks and tear gas, sped to Playland-at-the-Beach and restored order after two hours. The officers did not use the tear gas or the guns but were aided by police dogs in clearing the area.

At the same time, 1,000 hippies thronged the panhandle section of Golden Gate Park, causing police at first to report trouble also brewing there. Later police corrected it to: "Just a happening."

The beach trouble erupted after a fight broke out at a ticket booth. Youths broke windows in the booth and a girl ticket seller fled.

When three policemen arrested a youth, "all hell broke loose," said William Silvia Jr., 24, a Playland employee.

"There were so many people milling around you couldn't tell See YOUTH RIOT On Page 7

Funds for State Rivers Cleared

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House announced Saturday that President Johnson had signed a bill authorizing an additional $472 million appropriation for Army Engineer water projects, including:

Arkansas River, $170 million; Ouachita River, $8 million, and White River, $2 million.

Faubus and McMath Eye Senate Seat

By HARRY KELLY
LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Sen. J. W. Fulbright, of Arkansas, challenger of presidents and foreign policy for a quarter-century, faces his toughest political challenge as a dove in a state regarded as hawkish on the Vietnam war.

Two of Fulbright's most prominent fellow Democrats in Arkansas—former Govs. Orval E. Faubus and Sid McMath—think the senator is in trouble with the voters because of his attacks on administration war policy and so will be vulnerable in next year's primary.

Faubus and McMath, as well as Republicans bolstered by rived, "all hell broke loose," said William Silvia Jr., 24, a Playland employee.

Waited 13 Years for Pass to Freedom... and Then, Happy Day!

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A three-week pass to West Berlin was Alfreda Oppen's ticket to freedom.

She waited 13 years for the opportunity.

"We tried to get the East Germans to permit mother to join us here," said Ursula Wendt, "But always there was refusal and red tape."

Finally, the East German government relaxed regulations to permit persons over 65 to go from East to West Berlin on a three-week pass once a year. Mrs. Oppen, a widow, turned 65 this year. She immediately applied for a pass—and informed Mrs. Wendt.

Her daughter in Lancaster, Calif., a Los Angeles suburb, made arrangements with the American consul in West Berlin to expedite processing of Mrs. Oppen's visa.

The pass started April 26, and Mrs. Oppen—her visa finally cleared with the help of a congressman and the U.S. Immigration Service—left for West.

After her plane from London arrived in Los Angeles Mother's day she collapsed in her daughter's arms in tears.

At the airport were Mrs.

Wendt, 38, her husband, Wolfgang, 38, and their son, Klaus, 18.

The Wendts, who had not seen Mrs. Oppen since they left West Berlin 13 years ago, praised Rep. Ed Reineck, R-Calif., for cutting red tape and expediting processing of her visa so she could leave before the pass expired.

Mrs. Oppen, who speaks only German, sobbed, "I'm so glad, so happy," at the airport. Glad, she said, that she was finally free.

On the ride to Lancaster, Wendt said, Mrs. Oppen remarked at the quality of the homes she was passing in an average neighborhood.

She said, "That must be where high society lives."

Although his mother-in-law brought only one suitcase, Wendt said, "She doesn't need anything else—we're going to take good care of her." Their home has four bedrooms.

Her husband, a government employee, was placed in a concentration camp by the Russians in 1945 and died there in 1947. A sister still lives in East Berlin, but she knew nothing of the escape plans.

Odd Weather Explained by Forecasters

WASHINGTON (AP) — You can blame those meandering jet streams for the unusual spring weather we've been having, Weather Bureau experts said today.

Drought in the semitropical Florida Everglades, spring snows in the Rockies, chills in the north central states and heavy rains in the Northeast all are related to those high-level winds which frequently give airplanes a push across the continent.

The Weather Bureau takes a philosophical view of it all.

"The weather is always abnormal somewhere," one expert said. "Normal weather is sometimes a hard thing to come by."

Basically what is happening, the bureau said, is that a northern jet stream is going farther north than usual and bringing cold air into the continental United States from Alaska and Canada.

From Alaska this stream moves into the Great Lakes region and the East.

A Southern stream is slightly farther north than usual and is stronger than normal. It is bringing storm systems in from the Pacific Ocean to the central part of the nation.

Between these two giant rivers of air is what weather observers call a confluence zone—and it's here that snow and rain are falling from west to east.

The tendency is for the opposing systems to spread moisture toward the north with a dry area to the south, thus accounting for the Everglades drought, the bureau said.

The jet stream dislocation began developing during March and it is anybody's guess when the "wandering winds will go back to normal, one expert said.

During April, he added, it is normal for the northern mass to reach the Canadian-American border in the western part of the nation but it went as far as Alaska and is still there.

Just why the jet streams are meandering is a question the weather experts have not yet been able to answer with scientific accuracy. The streams are about 500 to 600 miles wide and their peak winds come between 30,000 and 40,000 feet.

There has been one advantage to all this, however.

The jet streams have moved rainy weather into the Northeast, plagued by drought the last five summers. But the bureau said drought could strike again this year when the jet streams move back on normal course.

New York City, which had been on the verge of a serious water shortage, now has an above normal supply.

The city's water supply was 97.3 per cent of capacity Saturday compared with the normal 95.5 per cent. Last year on May 11, the city's water supply was only 80.7 per cent of capacity.

Ft. Smith Woman Held for Murder

OLATHE, Kan. (AP) — Mrs. Christine Allison, 45, of Fort Smith, Ark., was booked here Sunday on a charge of second degree murder.

Sheriff Fred Allenbrand said Mrs. Allison was held under $15,000 bond pending her arraignment Monday in the slaying of Nolen L. Smith, 51, who was shot once in the chest with a .22 caliber rifle at a farm home in Johnson County.

The sheriff said Smith moved from Fort Smith six weeks ago and became supervisor of the farm. He said Mrs. Allison, a divorcee, appeared to come to Johnson County to seek ago.

U.S. Republicans Give Nod to WR

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ray C. Bliss, the Republican Party's National Chairman, said Sunday that Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller had been appointed to the Republican Coordinating Committee's task force on job opportunities and welfare.

U.S. efforts to brake the race with the Soviet Union in both offensive and defensive weapons have stepped up with reports that the Soviets already are started on an antimissile defense system. Antimissile sites are going up around Moscow and may be extended to other cities. A reported forward line, named for the Estonian city of Tallinn, covers the so-called "missile window," the sector U.S. missiles launched from land bases would have to pass through to reach Soviet targets.

Japan, U.S. to Call Red Navy Bluff

TOKYO (AP) — Japanese and U.S. officials said today their navies will continue joint maneuvers near Japan despite noising in by Soviet ships which bumped a U. S. destroyer twice last week.

The maneuvers are "not only safe, but more interesting recently," Adm. Ulysses Grant Sharp Jr., commander in chief of the U. S. Pacific Fleet, said with a smile.

Sharp and Kaneschichi Masuda, Japanese Defense Agency director, commented at a news conference following the seventh meeting of the U. S.-Japan Security Consultative Committee.

Masuda's agency reported earlier that close approaches by a Soviet destroyer and aircraft forced Japanese warships to suspend antisubmarine maneuvers with U. S. vessels briefly Thursday.

Foreign Ministry sources said the Japanese government felt no protest was warranted since the approaches came on the high seas — seas not under any nation's jurisdiction — and there was no collision.

Japanese military sources said a Soviet destroyer came within about 300 yards of the Japanese destroyer Makigumo Thursday about two hours before a Soviet destroyer brushed the U. S. destroyer Walker.

The Defense Agency released a photograph taken from the Makigumo showing crewmen on the Soviet ship taking pictures and looking through binoculars.

The United States has protested to the Kremlin that Soviet vessels collided with the Walker both Wednesday and Thursday. The State Department in Washington says it considers the matter closed.

The Soviet Union protested to the United States that the American ships were operating too close to the Soviet coast. A protest note published in Soviet newspapers Sunday stressed that the incidents occurred within 275 miles of the Soviet naval base at Vladivostok.

Mother's Day Message O.K.

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (AP) — The message, written in ink between the printing on a cardboard top of a C-ration box, arrived without postage at the home of Mrs. Edgar L. Walter.

From her son, Army Lt. Ronald Walter, stationed in Vietnam, it read:

"Mother, may you have the happiest of all possible Mothers Days. My thoughts and prayers are with you on this your special day. Love, Ronald."

FORREST CITY, Ark. (AP) — Plans for a survey designed to combat unemployment problems among displaced farm workers in the Arkansas delta will be discussed here Tuesday at a meeting of state Employment Security Division managers and farm placement representatives.

Burglary Conviction Reversed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court reversed today the conviction of two men and a woman by holding that a screw driver and tire tools cannot be classed as burglary tools.

The three, Jimmy C. Gossett, his wife and Edward Easley, were convicted in circuit court at Magnolia on a charge of possessing burglary tools and were sentenced to two years in prison.

They were arrested after the occupants of a car parked at a Magnolia drive in appeared to be tampering with a cigarette vending machine outside the building. In their car, similar to one seen parked at the drive-in, was found a tire tool, two screw drivers, a lug wrench and a bar for removing tires.

The Supreme Court held that circuit court erred by not granting a motion for a directed verdict of acquittal at the close of the state's testimony in their trial.

Whitfield Masonic Lodge No. 239 will have a regular meeting at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, May 16 at the Masonic Hall, and all Master Masons are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Burton (he is executive secretary to Gov. Rockefeller) have established a scholarship fund to assist Republican students to attend college as a memorial to their son, Douglas Tyler Burton, who died last year at the age of seven. Application forms and brochures describing the scholarship are now available at the Hope High School office of Earl Downs, guidance counselor. Deadline for application is May 19, so if you know of a worthy youngster have him contact Mr. Downs this week.

Future Farmers of America at Hope High School have elected the following officers for next year: president, "Rocky" Cummings; vice-president, Jack Douglas; secretary, Mike Voss; treasurer, Gary Golden; reporter, Sidney Hollis; sentinel, Danny Key; junior adviser, Al Verser.

Don't forget, tomorrow (Tuesday) is Election Day in Hempstead County. Citizens will be voting on the proposal for Hope Wire Products to provide a new building in order that they can increase production and employment in Hope. This County Bond issue will be voted under Amendment 49 and is the same type as was the election for Delight Egg Farms and Standard Generator, Chamber of Commerce officials and Hempstead County Industrial Foundation Board have the utmost confidence in Hope Wire Products and they are wholeheartedly supporting this issue.

Potential will visit Millwood Shrine Club at a party Tuesday, May 16, 7:00 p.m. at the Town & Country restaurant.

New Battle Shapes Up Near DMZ

By GEORGE MCARTHUR
SAIGON (AP) — Heavy ground fighting and severe Communist barrages continued to cause sharply increasing American casualties as a big new battle appeared to be building up between the U. S. Marines and North Vietnamese regulars just south of the demilitarized zone.

The Marines reported 12 dead and 92 wounded in attacks Sunday, and that did not include casualty reports from one of the day's sharpest pitched battles with the North Vietnamese.

Only 27 Communists were reported killed.

In the air, the U. S. Command announced the loss of three planes Sunday — matching the number of Soviet-built MIG jets downed by American airmen in dogfights over the North.

One U. S. jet was lost to ground fire in the South, making 179 combat planes downed there since the war began. In the North, one jet was lost to ground fire and one to unknown causes, making 541 combat planes lost over North Vietnam.

Hanoi claimed seven U. S. jets were downed Sunday.

The three MIGs reported downed brought the American score for the weekend to 10 kills and two probables. The Air Force announced seven Red jets were downed Saturday and two probably were brought down.

The three MIGs were downed Sunday during raids four miles from the heart of Hanoi.

U. S. Marines reported killing 110 North Vietnamese regulars in a running battle southwest of Da Nang. The Marines have swept over a hill in the area and are pushing through a jungled valley toward the Ly Ly River.

The fighting there has been going on since last Friday. The Reds have clung doggedly to hidden bunkers and trenchlines buried in the jungles and along low ridges of the area.

Marine headquarters reported a patrol Sunday discovered a fresh Communist burial ground alongside the battlefield. They counted 73 bodies in North Vietnamese uniforms. This brought to 351 the number of Reds reported killed in the fight, in which 69 Marines have been killed and 311 wounded. This does not include Sunday's casualties, which were not yet reported.

Similar grim fighting was taking place in Quang Tri Province below the demilitarized border. Probes and artillery and mortar fire repeatedly raked the Marine camps at Gio Linh and Con Thien just south of the zone.

WR's Cattle Sale Brings $140,000

MORRILLTON, Ark. (AP) — The sale of 50 head of Santa Gertrudis cattle owned by Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller Saturday totaled $140,000.

The Superior Oil Co., of Houston, Tex., bought 14 head from Winrock Farms for $44,650. Jack Josey, owner of Josey Ranches at Cypress, Tex., paid $8,000 for the top bull, WR Rocco 589-2.

The sale was held at Rockefeller's farm on Petit Jean Mountain, near Morrilton, and drew about 4,000 persons.

Prices at the auction ranged from an average of $1,287.50 for junior heifer calves to an average of $4,531.80 for herd bulls.

McClellan in Senate for State Record

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., who became a senator Jan. 3, 1943, has now served longer than any other U.S. senator from Arkansas.

McClellan exceeded on May 8 the record of 24 years, four months and four days set by the late Sen. Joseph T. Robinson, D-Ark., who served from 1913 to 1937.

SMOKEY THE BEAR IN THE FLESH may still be seen at the National Zoological Park in Washington, D.C., where he frequently poses for U.S. Department of Agriculture artists, who design new fire prevention posters. Orphaned by a forest fire in 1950, and nursed to health by a young girl, he became the model and inspiration for one of the nation's most successful public safety campaigns. Royalties paid for use of the name on toy and novelty items seen at right earn the Department of Agriculture about $45,000 a year, which goes back into the fire safety campaign.

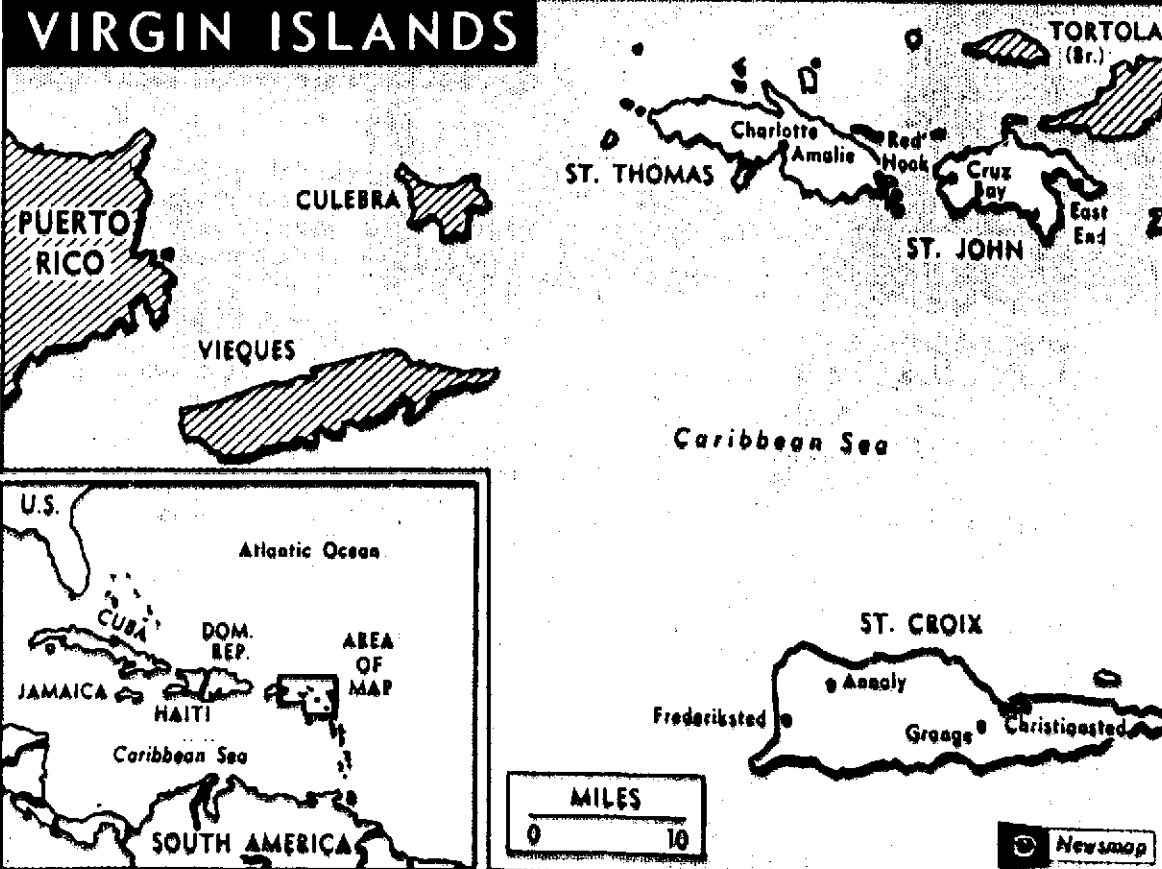

SNAKE DANCE is performed by pieces of metal flying up from an airplane wheel being machined at Akron, Ohio. Work on the wheel, being prepared for a Boeing 707, was taking place at Goodyear's Aviation Products Division in Akron.

CONFRONTING HAIRNIKS who were protesting her hairdo, or lack of same, comedienne Phyllis Diller gives a typical Diller reaction in New York. The group of pickets were waiting for her when she arrived in that city recently, and expressed fear that if her unkempt hairdos became a fad it would put them out of business.

SAINTHOOD in the Roman Catholic church is considered likely for Edith Stein sometime next year. Born to a middle-class Jewish family in Breslau, Germany in 1891, she later became a Catholic nun and worked under the name Sister Teresa Benedicta A. Gruce. She was arrested by the Nazis during World War II and died in a gas chamber at Auschwitz.

The Virgins—St. Thomas, St. John and St. Croix—have been American islands in the Caribbean sun for half a century now. Originally acquired with an eye to strengthening U.S. Atlantic defenses in World War I, they came under the flag March 31, 1917. Purchase price to Denmark, which had ruled them for more than 250 years, was $25 million, showing how the price of real estate has been going up. The bill for huge Alaska—586,400 square miles compared with the Virgins' 133—purchased 50 years earlier was only $7.2 million. The Virgins were discovered and named by Columbus in 1493. The islanders have been American citizens since 1917 but do not vote in U.S. elections. Tourism is the chief industry and booming.

Graduates
From High
62 Yrs. Late

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — Theodosia Johnson is graduating from high school 62 years after quitting a one-room Georgia schoolhouse just as she was beginning to learn fractions.

She says those fractions kept bothering her during a half century of working as a waitress and taking in folks' laundry.

"My stepfather was a slave and he never went to school. When he was freed, he learned to read and write real good without school. He said we could do what he did," she recalls.

But one day in 1963, Miss Johnson, 78, told some passing school children to ask their teacher if she could come to classes, too.

"They were anxious for me to go when I asked them," she said.

She was advised to enroll in special adult elementary school classes and eventually transferred to adult evening classes at Rochelle Senior High School.

Today she steps forward with 28 younger students and receives her diploma.

With a wide, gentle smile, she added, "It was easier than I thought it would be. Teaching was plainer than when I was a girl."

At the turn of the century, Miss Johnson said, "They whipped you for making a mistake. Now a teacher explains why."

Born on a farm near Philema, Ga., Miss Johnson grew up in a series of small saw mill camps. Her first schooling was in a church classroom at Sibley, Ga.

On her way to earning her diploma Miss Johnson developed a keen taste for history, particularly Egyptian history.

"I like to read about the pharaohs," she said.

Colombia raises at least 2,000 different species of orchids, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

STAKED-OUT for fishing are these natives along the southern coast of Ceylon, making their living off the coastal waters. The poles give them a stable resting place from which to fish in the shallows, and the catch is deposited in the woven bags they carry at their waists.

Red China
Puts Squeeze
on Hong Kong

HONG KONG (AP) — Red China put official pressure on Britain today to meet Communist demands in Hong Kong, and Red newspapers in the colony urged Chinese residents to renew anti-British fighting. But Hong Kong was generally quiet.

The Communist campaign unfolded similarly to that in the neighboring Portuguese colony of Macao. After anti-Portuguese rioting there and ominous patrols by Red Chinese gunboats, the colonial administration capitulated to demands for admissions of guilt and compensation to victims.

A Chinese Foreign Ministry

note handed to D. C. Hopson, the British charge d'affaires in Peking, accused the British of "fascist atrocities against Chinese workers and residents" and demanded punishment of "all those responsible."

There was no immediate reaction from London.

Both major Communist newspapers in Hong Kong, Ta Kung Pao and Wen Wei Pao, said in front page red-ink stories: "We are not afraid of their concentration camps. They are not big enough to imprison all our Chinese compatriots. We must dare to fight at any time and any place."

The stories were addressed to the colony's four million Chinese — 98 per cent of its population.

The Chinese note told the British: "The Chinese government and the 700 million Chinese people firmly support their compatriots in Hong Kong in their heroic and just struggle and resolutely stand behind them."

The British lifted a dusk-to-dawn curfew Sunday in the six-square-mile industrial district on the outskirts of Kowloon where three days of violence resulted in 389 known arrests, 118 reported injuries and the death of an 18-year-old Chinese youth hit by a rock thrown from a rooftop.

The anti-British demonstrations stemmed from a strike by Chinese workers in factories that make artificial flowers.

The Communist New China News Agency said British authorities had a factory foreman beat up the workers and then sent in five carloads of police in a "premeditated sanguinary suppression of workers."

Hong Kong's Communists made four demands on the colonial government:

"Immediately stop the bloody suppression of Chinese and guarantee that such will never happen again."

"Severely punish those officials and persons guilty of inhuman actions and make compensation to Chinese victims for injuries and damages."

Doubt Cast
on Romney's Eligibility

NEW YORK (AP)—Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., says a question remains whether Michigan Gov. George Romney is eligible for the presidency.

Romney, considered by many a frontrunner for the Republican presidential nomination, was born in Mexico to American parents.

Celler, appearing Sunday on the WNBC-TV "Searchlight" program, said there was no doubt about Romney's American citizenship. But the head of the House Judiciary Committee noted that the Constitution stipulates that the president must be a "natural born" citizen.

Celler suggested that the Republican party appoint some sort of commission to "come up with an answer to this situation."

He said GOP leaders might throw his suggestion "in the ashcan if they wish, but I think this is going to plague Mr. Romney from now on out."

Romney's parents, Gaskell and Anne, fled to Chihuahua, Mexico, along with a number of other Mormons in 1885 when Congress outlawed polygamy, then a common practice in the Mormon Church. George Romney's parents were monogamous. The governor's parents never gave up their citizenship. They returned to the United States during a period from 1911-12 when the Mormon colony in Mexico was beset by marauders, including Pancho Villa.

Celler said a legal test of Romney's eligibility could be demanded if he appeared in a presidential primary or if he was nominated and elected.

Singing Birds

Although there are about 9,000 species of birds in the world, only about 3,000 species can sing. Of these, only about 225 have outstanding songs, and 21 of these are found in North America.

Wallace in Blast at Traitors

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace says "when a college professor stands and says, in a college in this country, 'I long for a victory of the Viet Cong Communists over American servicemen,' he is a traitor."

Wallace said if he were president he would order the attorney general to bring treason charges against those who give over aid to the enemy such as donations of money, clothing and supplies. He said he has no quarrel with honest dissent.

Wallace also said during an interview Sunday on ABC's "Issues and Answers" that he was encouraged by his recent speaking tour in the Northeast. But he added he has yet to decide whether to run for president on a third-party ticket.

Mermaid Legend

It is thought that the posture of the manatee in holding its young to the breast, as human mothers do, was noted by ancient seafaring men, thus giving rise to the legend of the mermaids—half-woman and half-fish.
